

Printed and Published by
BARNEY & HUGHES.

OFFICE ON THIRD STREET,
East side, between Market and Jefferson streets—
first floor—next door to O'Reilly's Telegraph
Office.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
DAILY, per year, payable quarterly, $8 00
TRI-WEEKLY, per year, in advance, 4 00
WEEKLY, per year, in advance, 2 00
Subscriptions will also be received for any period of time, at the above rates, when paid in advance.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

One square (10 lines) one insertion $1 00
One square, each month, without alteration 6 00
Do two months, " 7 50
Do three months, " 10 00
Every additional month, one cent, less
One square, six months, without alteration 12 00
Do twelve months, " 15 00
Each additional square for months 7 50
One square, six months, renewable, not to exceed one year 12 00
One square, twelve months, renewable, not to exceed one year 20 00
Each additional square for two months 3 00
Two squares, six months, not to exceed one year 15 00
Advertisements published at intervals, viz: weekly, semi-monthly, tri-weekly, or monthly, are charged $1 00 for the first, and 50 cents for every subsequent insertion.

All advertisements from transient persons or strangers always to be paid in advance.

Adverts. for charitable institutions, free to spous, ward and other public meetings, and such like, to be charged half price.

Obituaries and funeral invtations as advertises.

General advertisements to be charged 25 cents for the first insertion, and 12 1/2 cents for each consecutive insertion.

The privilege of yearly advertisers is strictly limited to their own immediate and regular business;

and the names of an advertising firm is not considered as part of the privilege.

All advertisements by yearly advertisers, without the in- of the advertiser's own business—all ordered to be inserted in the first insertion, or on special days, must be paid at the usual rates.

No advertisement can be inserted gratuitously to charitable or other societies, public institutions, or such like.

Letters in all cases must be post paid.

NEW FALL GOODS.

The subscriber informs the public generally that he has removed his stock of goods to the store hours usually occupied by Mr. Barney & Hughes, in the Market street, between Second and Third streets, where he is prepared to exhibit a general assortment of reasonable FALL

DRY GOODS, consisting in part of—

Manufacturers and Importers of the best quality of the following articles:

Super fine colored Silks;

Super fine colored Muslins;

Rich printed De Laines;

Medium and common dog;

French and Indian Merinos, all colors;

Spotted and plain De Laines, all wool;

Black and plain Colored dog; Gauze Plaids;

75 & 74 red Cuants, 3 1/2 & 4 1/2 Gingham;

Black Bonnets, Black Lustred and Canton Cloths;

Plain and striped J-capes, and Swiss;

Irish Linen, superior mass; Linen Lawn;

12 & 14 men's sheeting; 9 1/2 Flannel Lines;

Linen Damask Table Cloths, Huckaback Towels;

Linen Cambic Handkerchiefs;

Mourning, dog;

Swiss and Jacon Edgings and Insertions;

Bobbins and other Lacees;

Silk and Kid Gloves;

Black Merino, Thinn and Lamé Hoses;

Black and white made colored cotton Hoses;

Blacks, roses, Linen Vells, &c.,

10 1/2 & 12 bleached Sheetings;

5 1/2, 6 1/2 & 10 1/2 brown Sheetings;

7 1/2 & 8 1/2 bleached Shirts;

4 1/2 fine red steam top do;

7 1/2 & 8 1/2 extra quality Tickings;

7 1/2 & 9 1/2 cotton Checks;

Black, white, and red Field Bay State Shawls;

Black, white, and red Field Bay State Shawls;

Plaid and mixed Cassimères, for boys;

Merino Cassimères, Sables, Satins;

Black, white, and red Japans;

3 1/2, 4 1/2 Plaid Lingeries;

7 1/2, 8 1/2 & 9 1/2 super White Flannels;

Yellow and Red Plannel, super quality;

Plaid and mixed Canton Fiances.

The above enunciated articles comprise only a part of the stock on hand. I invite customers to give me a call, and if you have any particular article, or a particular size, with a determination to sell them at the LOWEST CASH PRICES.

SAM'L CAMPBELL, No. 339 Market, between Fifth and Sixth.

Dobyns' Daguerrean Galleries,

No. 480 Main street, over Kitti's Jewelry Store, Louisville, Ky.

No. 1. POWERS' Row, Memphis, Tenn.

Corner of Market and Canal streets, (Maguire's old corner,) New Orleans, La.

Corner Fourth and Chestnut streets, St. Louis, Mo.

By arrangement with the proprietors, you can procure such Pictures as may please. We respectfully solicit a call. Jas. Dobyns & Co.

RENTHANT TAILOR.

This subscriber has just returned from New York, having made extensive purchases in his line, with full and one regard to quality, and the price, to the strict notice and most reasonable terms. Averse to putting, as he presumes those wishing to purchase competent to examine and judge for themselves promptly attendents. Goods carefully packed and sent to those ordering from a distance.

N. B. Some four or five practical Coat Hands can be accommodated with the greatest convenience.

J. B. WALKER, Main street, opposite Bank of Kentucky.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

I DO hereby certify that I have sold Bettison's English

Horse Harness and have used it on various teams of horses, and have had nothing to do with either man or horse.

Its reputation in the neighborhood where I have sold it such that those who have tried it will not be without it, as well as the quality supplied.

Paradise, Ky., Sept. 4, 1850. W. N. WAND,

Sold by Messrs. Robinson, Clark, & Munn, J. B.

Wilde, & Co., New Orleans, La.

Corner Fourth and Chestnut streets, St. Louis, Mo.

For a few weeks past the establishment, we can procure such Pictures as may please. We respectfully solicit a call. Jas. Dobyns & Co.

JOHN WATSON,

IMPORTER AND DEALER IN

Saddlery Hardware, Harness Mountings, and Coach

TRIMMINGS:

Manufacturer of Skirting, Harnesses, Bridle, Sole, and Band Leather; also all kinds of Moroccos, Padding, and Seating Skins,

No. 494 Main street, (north side) one door from corner of Fourth street. Louisville, Ky.

HAVING just returned from the Eastern cities with a full supply of everything in my line, I would respectfully call the attention of Manufacturers and Merchants visiting the city to an examination of my goods before making their purchases at the same time assuring them that my STOCK is the best selected ever before in this general field.

SKINTING is acknowledged by TANNERS, and all who have used it, to be superior to any manufactured in the West, which sell as low as any other in the city can sell an inferior article. Saddlers in want of such should do well to inquire of me, as they cannot obtain an equal or better article.

Mr. HUTCHINS, of New York, has sent me a sample of his leather, and I am not satisfied with it, as it is not equal to mine.

He has a good leather, but it is not equal to mine.

JOHN WATSON, 494 Main street.

HARDWARE NOTICE.

We will inform our friends and the public that,
having removed from Market street to the fine

new story building on Third, between Main and Jefferson streets, we have a large and well

assorted stock of STAPLE and PAPER HARDWARE.

We have also

on hand a great variety of Household Acces-ties, priors, &c., between Main and Kentock, KY.

WINTER! WINTER! WINTER!

Gentlemen in search of superior Winter Under Garments and Drawers can find a large assortment at 494 Main street, to wit:

Nov. 1. Men's Silk Shirts and Drawers, extra large and small;

Shoe Flannel dog;

Cashmere dog;

Merino dog;

Lambs Wool dog;

Country Flannel dog;

Deer Cotton dog;

Net dog do do do.

All sizes and qualities from the smooth to the heaviest and strongest. Gents may rely on getting suited at the Louisville Wharf Store.

A. D. MANFIELD, Third street, between Main and Kent-

ock, KY.

REMOVAL.

W. M. HARTUPE having removed from his old stand, the M. Hartupe's Cloth Depot, to the store formerly occupied by Mr. Hart & Co., No. 492, and recently vacated by Mr. Hart & Co., No. 493, he has now established a new stand, where he will continue to sell his goods.

He is now occupying a superior stock of ready made Clothing, of my own manufacture, warranted to be of the best quality and latest style.

He is now occupying a superior stock of ready made Clothing, of my own manufacture, which is constantly kept on hand. His terms are reasonable, and sufficient to prove it when his work is done.

John M. Stokes, Agents.

W. M. HARTUPE, 493 Main street, bet'n 4th and 5th st.

Remember the No.—492.

Printed and Published by
BARNEY & HUGHES.

OFFICE ON THIRD STREET,

East side, between Market and Jefferson streets,

first floor—next door to O'Reilly's Telegraph

Office.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

DAILY, per year, payable quarterly, $8 00

TRI-WEEKLY, per year, in advance, 4 00

WEEKLY, per year, in advance, 2 00

1/2 Subscriptions will also be received for any

period of time, at the above rates, when paid in advance.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

One square (10 lines) one insertion $1 00

One square, each month, without alteration 6 00

Do two months, " 7 50

Do three months, " 10 00

Every additional month, one cent, less

One square, six months, without alteration 12 00

Do twelve months, " 15 00

Each additional square for months 7 50

One square, twelve months, not to exceed 20 00

One square, twelve months, renewable, not to exceed one year 15 00

THE DEMOCRAT.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY & HUGHES.
Office on Third street, East side, between Market and Jefferson.

FOR SALE AT THE DESK.
Copies of the Daily Paper can be procured at the desk, with or without envelopes, at 5 cents per single copy or 35 cents per dozen.

SATURDAY : NOVEMBER 22, 1851.

The Sparring in the Legislature.—The Hon. Thomas F. Marshall seems to have been selected as the leader of the whig party; and we approve the choice. We hope he will continue to do good service. We are much indebted, moreover, to the whig letter-writers, who have sent their epistles to this city. The abuse of Hardin, Dixon, and their friends—the great men in their "own conceit"—is in order, and well adapted to preserve union and harmony in the whig ranks. Upon the whole, the business has been well managed so far. The haste to plunge into the election, the hostility to Dixon, after all his time and cash wasted in canvassing the State, and his ill success, ought to teach him and his friends to know their places, and not aspire to stations which belong of divine right to their betters.—A little castigation is sometimes required to rebuke impudence. This Marshall and the letter-writers have duly administered, and we trust the effect will be wholesome and salutary.—What right has any man in the whig party to offer himself against Mr. Crittenden? The Royal alphabet of whigry only reaches to the letter C. They have not got to D yet. It's all well; we hope they will have a good time of it. We hope Marshall will make some more speeches, and the letter-writers write more letters.

The rise in the river, which reached here yesterday, gave an impetus to business not witnessed in our streets for a long period. The principle thoroughfares of the city were crowded with vehicles of all kinds, and every body seemed to be busy.

There are 191 convicts in the Jeffersonville Penitentiary—all in good health and doing the state yeoman service. This is more than has ever been confined at hard labor in prisons since Indiana has been erected into a State.

The steamer Missouri reached the Jeffersonville landing yesterday, freighted with railroad iron.

COWHIND EXTRAORDINARY.—The peace and quiet of Preston street was disturbed yesterday by a novel case of cowhinding. The whipper, and whipper belong to the feminine and masculine genders. What was the extent of provocation we did not learn, but the stripes were well laid on—and marvelously strange (but unusual) the woman was triumphant.

Mrs. Delta Webster, who was connected with Calvin Fairbank, some years since, in kidnapping slaves in Fayette county, and afterwards sent to the penitentiary, is now in the city.

The Hon. Thomas H. Benton and family were in the city yesterday, en route for St. Louis.

A farmer named Linton was robbed of $75 on the steamer Fleetwood, at Cincinnati, on Wednesday.

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

FRANKFORT, Nov. 17, 1851.

GENTLEMEN: I find in the Louisville Journal of this morning, a communication addressed to me by Mr. Wm. Kirtley, which, I presume, found its way into your paper, through the agency of that gentleman, and, therefore, may demand some notice at my hands. Before the Journal containing this letter had reached this city, the letter of Mr. Kirtley to me, had been received, and I had determined to return it to its author, with a letter expressive of my regret that he should have permitted his feelings so far to get the better of his judgment, as to induce him to make such a communication; and to send him a copy of the official opinion of Mr. Attorney General Hart, upon which the determination of General Powell was based.—

Funding, however, that Mr. Kirtley failed to make his letter to me public, even before he could have had time to receive my answer, I have thought myself at liberty to change my first determination, and to forward to you the opinion of the Attorney General in this case, together with a brief statement of facts connected therewith, and a few comments thereon, with a request that you will give this the same publicity which has been given to Mr. Kirtley's letter.

To the Executive Committee:

NOV. 4, 1851.

Sir: I have examined the papers submitted by you for my opinion in the contested election for clerk of the Rockcastle circuit court.

After deducing illegal votes given for both candidates, appears that Mr. Kirtley had 371 votes, and Mr. Newcom 370 votes, thereby giving the former a majority of one vote. But the report shows that two of the votes constituting the 371 votes allowed to Mr. Kirtley were never in fact given; and the question is, whether an election to vote should be regarded as having been given and recorded?

It seems to me that the Board had no power to add to Mr. Kirtley's votes, as the persons who did not vote at the election. Deducting these, the report shows that Mr. Kirtley received of the legal votes actually cast, 369 votes, and Mr. Newcom 370 votes; and that the latter gent-man must be regarded as having been duly elected.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your ob't serv't,
J. HARLAN,
Attorney General.
A copy: Attest: J. P. METCALFE,
Assistant Secretary of State.

The decision of the Board for the trial of contested elections in Rockcastle county, and the award of the election to Mr. Kirtley, goes to the office of the Secretaries of State, showing that the same was from an hour to an hour and a half before sunset, and after all the votes presented and polled, and when no more were expected to come forward, and that the closing of the polls thus early was not intended to affect either candidate. That one man came to the polls after they were closed, and another came within about half a mile of the place of voting, when, being informed that the polls had been closed, he turned back, and never went to the polls at all, and both of these votes were counted for Kirtley, which decided the election, thereby confirming votes for Kirtley which was never given.

To the implied charge made in Mr. K's letter, that the Governor had stated to Judge Monroe that no private letters had been received relative to this case, when, in fact such letters had been received, I take the liberty of saying that I was present when Judge Monroe made his inquiry of the Governor, and have no hesitation in saying that the Judge's inquiry was, as to whether any private letters had been received reflecting upon the character, or abuse of Mr. Kirtley; and the Governor replied that there had been such letters and that he had received them there were no letters received of a private nature, whatever, so far as I know or believe, and none of any kind, except from the parties themselves, and one from Mr. McCall, the Attorney for Newcom, explanatory of the case, and referring to the law, which was filed with the papers and submitted to the Attorney General.

Respectfully yours, &c., D. MERIWETHER.

LETTER FROM FRANKFORT.

Correspondence of the Louisville Democrat.]

FRANKFORT, Nov. 20, 1851.

Messrs. Editors: I was so hurried in my letter of yesterday that I did not mention the fact that a ballot was taken in the Senate between Messrs. Meriwether, Dixon, and Crittenden.—That vote stood, Meriwether 17, Dixon 10, and Crittenden 43.

Mr. Wintersmith moved a postponement of the election until Wednesday, 3d December.

Hon. George R. McKee then took the floor in reply to T. F. Marshall, and for thirty minutes poured a volley of argument and sarcasm upon that gentleman which has no parallel in the history of American oratory. Indeed, he was so severe that it was conceded that Mr. M. was fairly whipped out. During his speech there were frequent outbursts of applause from the galleries, lobbies, and in the House. He was favorable to the election of Dixon and opposed decidedly to Mr. Crittenden.

The discussion of Mr. Wintersmith's resolution was further continued by Messrs. C. J. Helm, Thomas from Christian, C. G. Wintersmith, &c. It was, however, decided in the negative.

OBSEVER.

Hogs.—The census returns show the annual product of hogs in Indiana to be 2,314,900; of this number Rush county furnishes 64,267, Park 62,288, Jefferson 31,411.

The remains of the late Capt. Francis will be interred to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Free Masons are requested to meet at their Hall at 2 o'clock to attend the funeral.

There were no cases to try before his Honor Judge Joye yesterday morning.

Officer G. Moore arrested a man named Thomas McKeaster, on Fulton street, above Shelly, yes, yesterday morning, who had beaten his wife in a very brutal manner. McKeaster attempted to stab officer Moore when he arrested him.

Messrs. Wallace & Lithgow, Main st. reet, have received direct from Pittsburgh two very ferocious looking animals, a fierce looking Lion and a large Newfoundland dog, which attract much attention. We are requested to state that they won't bite!

For telegraphic news, markets, &c., see next page.

UTAH.

Trouble between the Mormons and United States Officials.

Correspondence of the New York Tribune.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Oct. 31, 1851.

The Salt Lake City arrived here last evening.

The Territory is in a state of revolution. All the United States officers, judges, Indian agents, &c., have been compelled to leave the territory, and are now on their way to the States. The Secretary of the territory managed to escape with $24,000 public money, appropriated at the last session of Congress for the benefit of the Territory of Utah. He was pursued, overtaken and searched by the Mormons, but they did not secure the money. All the merchants, and others not Mormons, have quit the country.

In his speech yesterday, Mr. Marshall attempted to be very severe, not only upon the democracy, but upon Mr. Clay and Mr. Dixon's party. He asked what Mr. Dixon had ever done for the party. Three years ago Mr. Crittenden had been called home from the Senate to win a race which Mr. Dixon could not. He had won it. He killed and buried Mr. Powell; and Mr. Powell had slept the sleep of death, not three days, but three years. In 1851, Mr. Dixon was called out by the whigs, and what did he do? Why, he called Lazarus from the dead, and Lazarus came forth. In this strain of withering sarcasm and abuse did he proceed for more than half an hour; and what was the effect produced? Listen to the curses of Dixon's friends yesterday evening and this morning, both long and loud—Crittenden cannot and shall not go to the Senate! Such are the words upon the lips of the Dixionites and Clayites at the capital now; and are they not right? Shall Clay, Dixon, and Robertson all be buried by Mr. Crittenden and a few of his friends?

Among the democracy, Mr. Marshall singled out Messrs. Bates and Green as the particular objects of his sarcasm and abuse. He said both were trying to constitute themselves the leaders of their party, but he thought they had miserably failed; and if the democracy had no better material for a leadership, they had better abandon their organization at once. That all who are members of their protection or patronage, such as the members of a fanatical holding office under our Government, &c.

If Government should call for volunteers, I believe that this county (Jackson) would contribute as many men as would be necessary to bring these wretches to a sense of their duty. People here are much excited on the subject.

It is also said that Young stated that he had risen from Heaven—that General Taylor was dead in hell!

That the United States Government, &c.,

are now on their way to the States.

The Salt Lake City arrived here last evening.

The Territory is in a state of revolution. All the United States officers, judges, Indian agents, &c.,

have been compelled to leave the territory, and are now on their way to the States. The Secretary of the territory managed to escape with $24,000 public money, appropriated at the last session of Congress for the benefit of the Territory of Utah. He was pursued, overtaken and searched by the Mormons, but they did not secure the money. All the merchants, and others not Mormons, have quit the country.

In his speech yesterday, Mr. Marshall attempted to be very severe, not only upon the democracy, but upon Mr. Clay and Mr. Dixon's party. He asked what Mr. Dixon had ever done for the party. Three years ago Mr. Crittenden had been called home from the Senate to win a race which Mr. Dixon could not. He had won it. He killed and buried Mr. Powell; and Mr. Powell had slept the sleep of death, not three days, but three years. In 1851, Mr. Dixon was called out by the whigs, and what did he do? Why, he called Lazarus from the dead, and Lazarus came forth. In this strain of withering sarcasm and abuse did he proceed for more than half an hour; and what was the effect produced? Listen to the curses of Dixon's friends yesterday evening and this morning, both long and loud—Crittenden cannot and shall not go to the Senate! Such are the words upon the lips of the Dixionites and Clayites at the capital now; and are they not right? Shall Clay, Dixon, and Robertson all be buried by Mr. Crittenden and a few of his friends?

Among the democracy, Mr. Marshall singled out Messrs. Bates and Green as the particular objects of his sarcasm and abuse. He said both were trying to constitute themselves the leaders of their party, but he thought they had miserably failed; and if the democracy had no better material for a leadership, they had better abandon their organization at once. That all who are members of their protection or patronage, such as the members of a fanatical holding office under our Government, &c.

If Government should call for volunteers, I believe that this county (Jackson) would contribute as many men as would be necessary to bring these wretches to a sense of their duty. People here are much excited on the subject.

It is also said that Young stated that he had risen from Heaven—that General Taylor was dead in hell!

That the United States Government, &c.,

are now on their way to the States.

The Salt Lake City arrived here last evening.

The Territory is in a state of revolution. All the United States officers, judges, Indian agents, &c.,

have been compelled to leave the territory, and are now on their way to the States. The Secretary of the territory managed to escape with $24,000 public money, appropriated at the last session of Congress for the benefit of the Territory of Utah. He was pursued, overtaken and searched by the Mormons, but they did not secure the money. All the merchants, and others not Mormons, have quit the country.

In his speech yesterday, Mr. Marshall attempted to be very severe, not only upon the democracy, but upon Mr. Clay and Mr. Dixon's party. He asked what Mr. Dixon had ever done for the party. Three years ago Mr. Crittenden had been called home from the Senate to win a race which Mr. Dixon could not. He had won it. He killed and buried Mr. Powell; and Mr. Powell had slept the sleep of death, not three days, but three years. In 1851, Mr. Dixon was called out by the whigs, and what did he do? Why, he called Lazarus from the dead, and Lazarus came forth. In this strain of withering sarcasm and abuse did he proceed for more than half an hour; and what was the effect produced? Listen to the curses of Dixon's friends yesterday evening and this morning, both long and loud—Crittenden cannot and shall not go to the Senate! Such are the words upon the lips of the Dixionites and Clayites at the capital now; and are they not right? Shall Clay, Dixon, and Robertson all be buried by Mr. Crittenden and a few of his friends?

Among the democracy, Mr. Marshall singled out Messrs. Bates and Green as the particular objects of his sarcasm and abuse. He said both were trying to constitute themselves the leaders of their party, but he thought they had miserably failed; and if the democracy had no better material for a leadership, they had better abandon their organization at once. That all who are members of their protection or patronage, such as the members of a fanatical holding office under our Government, &c.

If Government should call for volunteers, I believe that this county (Jackson) would contribute as many men as would be necessary to bring these wretches to a sense of their duty. People here are much excited on the subject.

It is also said that Young stated that he had risen from Heaven—that General Taylor was dead in hell!

That the United States Government, &c.,

are now on their way to the States.

The Salt Lake City arrived here last evening.

The Territory is in a state of revolution. All the United States officers, judges, Indian agents, &c.,

have been compelled to leave the territory, and are now on their way to the States. The Secretary of the territory managed to escape with $24,000 public money, appropriated at the last session of Congress for the benefit of the Territory of Utah. He was pursued, overtaken and searched by the Mormons, but they did not secure the money. All the merchants, and others not Mormons, have quit the country.

In his speech yesterday, Mr. Marshall attempted to be very severe, not only upon the democracy, but upon Mr. Clay and Mr. Dixon's party. He asked what Mr. Dixon had ever done for the party. Three years ago Mr. Crittenden had been called home from the Senate to win a race which Mr. Dixon could not. He had won it. He killed and buried Mr. Powell; and Mr. Powell had slept the sleep of death, not three days, but three years. In 1851, Mr. Dixon was called out by the whigs, and what did he do? Why, he called Lazarus from the dead, and Lazarus came forth. In this strain of withering sarcasm and abuse did he proceed for more than half an hour; and what was the effect produced? Listen to the curses of Dixon's friends yesterday evening and this morning, both long and loud—Crittenden cannot and shall not go to the Senate! Such are the words upon the lips of the Dixionites and Clayites at the capital now; and are they not right? Shall Clay, Dixon, and Robertson all be buried by Mr. Crittenden and a few of his friends?

Among the democracy, Mr. Marshall singled out Messrs. Bates and Green as the particular objects of his sarcasm and abuse. He said both were trying to constitute themselves the leaders of their party, but he thought they had miserably failed; and if the democracy had no better material for a leadership, they had better abandon their organization at once. That all who are members of their protection or patronage, such as the members of a fanatical holding office under our Government, &c.

If Government should call for volunteers, I believe that this county (Jackson) would contribute as many men as would be necessary to bring these wretches to a sense of their duty. People here are much excited on the subject.

It is also said that Young stated that he had risen from Heaven—that General Taylor was dead in hell!

That the United States Government, &c.,

are now on their way to the States.

The Salt Lake City arrived here last evening.

The Territory is in a state of revolution. All the United States officers, judges, Indian agents, &c.,

have been compelled to leave the territory, and are now on their way to the States. The Secretary of the territory managed to escape with $24,000 public money, appropriated at the last session of Congress for the benefit of the Territory of Utah. He was pursued, overtaken and searched by the Mormons, but they did not secure the money. All the merchants, and others not Mormons, have quit the country.

In his speech yesterday, Mr. Marshall attempted to be very severe, not only upon the democracy, but upon Mr. Clay and Mr. Dixon's party. He asked what Mr. Dixon had ever done for the party. Three years ago Mr. Crittenden had been called home from the Senate to win a race which Mr. Dixon could not. He had won it. He killed and buried Mr. Powell; and Mr. Powell had slept the sleep of death, not three days, but three years. In 1851, Mr. Dixon was called out by the whigs, and what did he do? Why, he called Lazarus from the dead, and Lazarus came forth. In this strain of withering sarcasm and abuse did he proceed for more than half an hour; and what was the effect produced? Listen to the curses of Dixon's friends yesterday evening and this morning, both long and loud—Crittenden cannot and shall not go to the Senate! Such are the words upon the lips of the Dixionites and Clayites at the capital now; and are they not right? Shall Clay, Dixon, and Robertson all be buried by Mr. Crittenden and a few of his friends?

Among the democracy, Mr. Marshall singled out Messrs. Bates and Green as the particular objects of his sarcasm and abuse. He said both were trying to constitute themselves the leaders of their party, but he thought they had miserably failed; and if the democracy had no better material for a leadership, they had better abandon their organization at once. That all who are members of their protection or patronage, such as the members of a fanatical holding office under our Government, &c.

If Government should call for volunteers, I believe that this county (Jackson) would contribute as many men as would be necessary to bring these wretches to a sense of their duty. People here are much excited on the subject.

It is also said that Young stated that he had risen from Heaven—that General Taylor was dead in hell!

